March 15-16 - Jefferson City / April 12-13 – St. Louis
/ May 11-12 – Independence

Scott Heidner, Gaches, Braden & Associates and ACEC Kansas, kicked off our program with an “Orientation” on March 15-16 in Jefferson City. He got the participants very involved throughout each session.

Dan Oblinger, Leadercraft, gave presentations on “Listening Like a Negotiator,” “Listening Lab,” and “The Leader's Craft.”

We held a reception at the ACEC/MO office and participants heard presentations from ACEC and ACEC/MO leadership.

Steve Hall (right), Vice President of Government Affairs, ACEC, and Amy Blunt, Bespoke Group, were part of the Governmental Affairs session in Jefferson City. They made each participant understand the importance of knowing the legislative process.

Scott Heidner, Gaches Braden & Associates, was also part of the Governmental Affairs session in Jefferson City.

Mike Lally, Olsson Associates, led the Establishing a Firm Culture for Business Development session in Jefferson City.

Andy Likes, The Vandiver Group, gave presentations on The Art & Science of Storytelling (How to Write and Present Better Than You Ever Thought Possible) during the St. Louis session.

Bob Staed, Greyling Insurance Brokerage & Risk Consulting, Inc., gave a presentation on Contract Language/Risk with Various Project Delivery Methods during the St. Louis session.

Lee James, Lee R. James & Associates, gave a presentation on Economic in Private Practice during the Independence session.
